Painting On View At Library

Frank Hanenkrat, of Appomattox, re- bering the April landing of settlers at stown in 1607, has just finished this ture (right) of Indians on the James as re ships of the English colonists sail view, Mr. Hanenkrat began painting only years ago – now has a one-man show ge oils at the Appomattox County library. decided upon early retirement from ssontinental Gas Pipeline Corporation, r 19 years employment there, in order travel, to paint, to do "some of the things always wanted to." He marketed a cedar turkey caller in 1948 and may put those production again. He's also working on en hickory wood chair, fashioned after one he found in Pennsylvania. An accomplished pianist, Mr. Hanenkrat has studied at the Philadelphia Music Conservatory, has taught piano lessons and counts his love of music as one of the blessings of life. Visitors to the library will not see the Jamestown scene this week. It's returning to the Hanenkrat home for the birthday of Mr. Hanenkrat's mother, Mrs. Lena Hanenkrat, who will be (95 years old today (Thursday). Thinking of all the activities he plans, shop work, hunting, gun repair, furniture design, etc. Mr. Hanenkrat remarked that almost anyone can have a full life, if he chooses. His comment, "A person can do most anything if he will try."

Petty & Morris Qualify For Sales Awards

Richmond, Va. -- More than 300 Ford dealership car and truck salesmen from Ford Division's Richmond sales district will be honored for outstanding performance during 1969 at a banquet at the Hotel Roanoke in Roanoke, Va., on Saturday, May 2.

Jack S. Straub, district sales manager, said the salesmen will be presented with Ford 300-500 Club membership awards. The Club was founded 20 years ago, he explained, "to recognize excellent retail sales performance by Ford dealership personnel and to highlight automotive sales as a profession that performs a valuable service to the national economy and the local community.

Seven men will receive the coveted Top Hatter Award, the highest honor any Ford Salesman can earn; 26 others will be given Sales Awards for achievements almost as great. Top Hatter laved, and special honors will go to three salesmen who have achieved membership in the 300-500 Club in each of the 20 years it has been in existence.

Mr. Straub said that the average 300-500 Club member sold nearly $500,000 worth of automotive merchandise in 1969. Each Top Hatter sold an estimated $1,000,000 worth of merchandise to qualify for the select group representing less than three per cent of the nation's 27,500 Ford salesmen.

Local Ford retail salesmen qualifying for awards are:

Sales Award – Dutson J. Morris, Grinels Motor Co., Appomattox, Va.

Boys Home Receives Radios

Patrick Henry Boys Plantation, a home for non-delinquent homeless boys at Brookneal, Virginia, has recently received a gift of 7 pieces of amateur radio receiving and transmitting equipment. This generous gift was made by Mr. Paschal Lanier Anderson, Jr. of Danville, Virginia and is currently being installed in a special radio room at the Plantation. It will be used to provide a training program for the boys and for the establishment of an amateur club station.

The Plantation has already established a training program consisting of two classes each week under the direction of Mr. B. F. Ginther, Jr., Secretary of the Plantation Executive Board, and Mr. Claude Sturgill, Cottage Life Supervisor.
